RIDE,FOOD,SHOP,EXPLORATION

PARIS, 27.10.2021, 07:34 Time

USPA NEWS - What is it about cars, what is the connection between a person and his car? Same goes for a motorcycle, for people who like to ride. The mere definition of a car for some people is just a piece of steel with four wheels that takes them from one place to another; while others breath cars and they spend so much time thinking what can be done with a car other than being a mean of transportation.... To them, they are always comparing them, challenging them, what makes it so desirable and so addictive?

Another thing that car and motorcycle can bring is to push you to focus on something that sometimes help you escape reality. It can bring ideas for your mind to build on and make you approach new limits that can be reached and broken. There is always that next thing to do with yours starting from just a maintenance to adding a sporty exhaust, and more other numerous changes and projects to try for yours again.
