Tracey Bond DREAM WInterviews Celeb Dad Christopher Pearman at Sea

Dream So Big Author Coaches at Sea

Marina Del Rey, 01.01.2016, 06:35 Time

USPA NEWS - Authors Tracey Bond and Christopher Pearman: Celebrity Dad (of The View's show host, Raven Symone) exchange thoughts about the principles of His book "DREAM SO BIG in an exclusive #007WInterview that set sail at Eugene Sidney's "Fashion On The Sea" event in Marina Del Rey, Ca.

Big dreams are timeless...here's one of my most favorite Bond Girl signature #007WInterviews that took place on one of the Hollywood haughtiest days of the Summer season ( Sep. 13th, 2015) in Marina Del Rey)...and released into the New Year's Day, to help some BIG DREAMERS find their way...(Audio information available at #BondGirl007eNewsRoom / #DreamSoBig/ #SpeakIntoThePodlight)

In a Bond Girl *007* WInterview exclusive: "KILLING FEAR with DREAM CATCHERS" a thoughtful exchange with Christopher Pearman ( Celebrity Author & Dad of actress Raven Symone as seen on The View and Disney Star of "That's So Raven"

TB007: Hello (CP soft laughter)...And Hello! Christopher Pearman

CP: Hey how are you doing?

TB007: Man, I am doing very well...all is well! This is ahhhazing!

CP: Is it?

CP: Good to see you...talking on the phone and sharing our thoughts w/ each other and about life in the world and then to be able to see you; I am very proud...excited about this.

TB007: Thank you CP That means so much. Its amazing how dreams ambitions and passions have a way of converging - all on their own w/o any kind of human manipulation; its so nice when its organic and its real.

CP: Well the reason Tracy is because its energy – energy that's been around since the beginning of time, and so when we start to manipulate that energy & start to focus in on those energies those start to come to you. That's what life is all about!

TB007: Oh so you're saying that we should manipulate the energy.

CP: Oh Absolutely!

TB007: Oh so talk about that a little bit more! And 1st of all before you start talking about it – we really need to know who it is we are talking to. So I said yes: "HELLO CHRISTOPHER PEARMAN!" But who is CP to you – introduce yourself CP. Q: Who are you?

CP: Ok. Well some may know me by – I have a famous daughter – her name is RAVEN SYMONE and

TB007: You know "THAT's SO RAVEN" (smile)

CP: "THAT'S SO RAVEN" yes – and THE VIEW" for Raven too, see – Yeah, that RAVEN SYMONE!

TB007: ...And CONGRATULATIONS RAVEN on the VIEW!

CP: Ahh isn't that something – now you don't realize its almost 30 years in the business. Its almost 30 years. Not many child actresses or actors really you know, do this. So ahh - yeah - let me give you a little background. When my daughter was 2 years old and we were living in Atlanta, she said "Daddy I want be on the Cosby show. And (ah) we quit our jobs, gave it a year to drive into New York to hopefully meet him - to make that happen. Now there's a lot more that's involved in it (which is in my book) but due to the constraint of time, I'll just shorten it up a little bit for you. And so 11 1/2 months later: went out for a movie called "Ghost Dad" starring Bill Cosby – and she didn't get that part. But the people that were casting for that movie – were the casting people for The Cosby Show and said "Would you like to meet Bill Cosby tomorrow?" The rest is history - he met her - put her on the show - now the world knows her as Raven Symone. As you can tell there's energy there – from that first thought of my daughter saying "I'm going to be on The Cosby Show" - and me meeting that thought and saying "its possible." We made that strategic and powerful move - forward - towards that dream – towards that goal - and by doing that - that's the energy I was telling you about, the universe will bring you what you need what you've declared for, I believe with you.

TB007: Alright, alright tell me more – I see this book that you have on the table – and for sake of ebvents and time I know we're hear enjoying this wonderful {"Fashion On The Sea"} cruise – I hope that you can hear the melodic ambience going on in the atmosphere, but there's a fashion show about to start upstairs - and we don't wanna miss that- but give us some fast facts about this book that you have sitting here on the table..

CP: Well after I retired from my daughter's career: everybody up until that point always wanted to know how she made it. They want to make it – their children to make it – whatever the case – whatever their dream was and I didn't have an answer for them, Tracey really "It was always either "keep hope alive, or you know, keep believing and keep your eye on the sparrow."

TB007: And keep keep on – keep keepin' on.

CP: Yeah, that was never really good enough for me growing up, I just wanna tell you that; because you can tell me that but then when I get home, I don't see anything I have to work with.

TB007: Wellllllllll! Talk about it!

CP: Hmm! But, what I have is very practical principles in which I call the dream catchers...and when you focus in on these dream catchers – while applying them to your life – you start to see changes in your life – okay for one pay attention. Number 1 dream catcher: “Pay Attention”: – you know how powerful paying attention is.

TB007: Oh its tremendous.

CP: Exactly! Its its - its an energy isn't it?!

TB007: And you can't afford NOT TO!

CP: And you can feel it. If you can walk into a room – you know sometimes you just feel sometimes that people are just looking at you?

TB007: You know it - I know you know it...but I KNOW YOU KNOW IT!

CP: You feel it on the back of your neck!

TB007: And if they don't look something's wrong isn't it? Your energy – that's what I say!

CP: (Laughing) The next one is believing – know it! 1st it was believing that had to transcend to knowing because there's a difference. I thought believing was the all-in, just believe. Not really I'm giving you an example: If I came to you and said “Can you ride that bike?” You would say believe I can, but then you ask somebody else and said “Can you ride that bike? And you say ...

TB007: “I know I can! I'm there...”

CP: ...Its a BIG difference - I put it together and said: “Believe/Knowing”

TB007:

CP: About this Dream CatcherPicture: What you will see in your outside reality, you 1st have to see it in your mind.

TB007: That's the TRUTH! It starts in the mind...

CP: It starts in the mind – if the mind is blank...all this gon' be blank. You understand what I'm sayin'?

TB007: Wellll...welllll.

CP: So a lot of times I ask people “Q: What are you thinking about? A: I ain't think about nothing?”

Q: Then where are you goin'?”

TB007: Shootin' blanks...that's what they doin!

CP: (Laughing) Next one is “Aim Straight: Anytime you wanna hit your target. I don't care what you have bow and arrow, to a gun - or even to your dream and direction you wanna go. You have to go straight forward. My daughter never would've been on the Cosby Show had I gone to California instead of New York.

TB007: I know that's right!

CP: You understand what I'm saying? To make a dream for me: that my daughter would never have to work for me, like really...to depend on – but for herself or whatever that dream came true for me. If I die today – my life is actually fulfilled - everything else now is gravy because I made my daughter's.

TB007: You sleep well don't you!

CP: Exactly: The Next one is Get Real: When you concentrate on your dream and what you wanna do. You have to be real about it to yourself!

TB007: All day...

CP: Don't be 3' foot 5 and wanna play basketball - when you can't really attempt to get from above the people's belt line. Its difficult I'm not saying its impossible = I wanna say but kinda get real about it.

TB007: Haaaa: Unless you've got some heckkkkkkuva reach!

CP: Yeah, yeah exactly, or some great hops...ah, but basically what it does is be able to look at your dream – and look at every aspect of the vision that you have in your mind about it; and as you see each step – know that you can achieve it – know that you can do it – you know what I'm saying? And if you start to see that you can do it? And you adjust - but don't just blindly fall into it and then do it – that's a way you can hurt yourself. What I'm saying is KILL FEAR!

TB007: Now that's the truth You have to see it 1st – start there...

CP: it kills fear! Fear is a DREAM KILLER! A lot of people that can see their dreams, unless they're afraid to. You ever heard of people that sabotage their own? That's out of fear.

TB007: All day: Ohhh yes SABOTAGE is real! And self-sabotage is the worst wouldn't you agree?

CP: And fear is such an illusion that you shouldn't even want to fathom; and you have to eliminate that fear. You have to understand that regardless of the fear that's ahead of you: STEP FORWARD ANYWAY! A lot of people don't understand this. My daughter had fake fear - of singing the national anthem - and I made her sing that national anthem, all the time...even though that first note: “Oh-ohhh say...” first slow note would drive her crazy - but I knew I had to get her over that hump – instead of her not getting over it. You know what I'm saying? Does it make since?

TB007: I know what you're talking about. Keiici example – taking on a diff task: I know what you're taling about he was unique – You know what Mom I'll sing that song – and he sang it well – he sang it well...–

CP: What did Raven...after she was able to get (over that fear)of : “Ohhh say: After she – did she tell you that – did she tell you after mastery....its hard when Daddy is telling you do that!”

CP: Confidence! Well you know what? You know where that – the telling comes from? That she continued to do it – with it? She did it and she also has platinum...gold albums.

TB007: I know that's right! And that's where it starts – do it anyway!

CP: Yeah, yeah so...that is what that's about...she showed it that way and very successful – and that's all that was ever required to achieve the dream at the time. You know ah and so, so so FEAR is something in the now – - after that? To another level – so lets do good. But whatever your dream is – makes sure it aligns with others...ah, and then the last one is BE YOU.

TB007: Alright....THATS IT!?! That's the grand finale?

CP: Yep! Its in "DREAM CATCHERS"
